

MATERIALS RESEARCH & TECHNOLOGY

SECURITY POLICY - ISO 17024

- Guarantee the safeguarding and administration of the evaluations for the certification of competence carried out by the body of certifications written on paper, stored electronically, transmitted by some electronic means, or of specific knowledge by authorized personnel involved.
- Ensure that each of these means includes all the necessary measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the information, in accordance with the provisions of the internal guidelines of MR&T, the necessary type and quantity controls will be implemented, which allow to face the main risks to which the information has been exposed.
- Establish guidelines to ensure that all current and new information systems include security requirements to protect the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the data they handle, including all steps of the examination processes: development, administration, reporting of results, issuance of certificate of competence.
- To assess all risks and threats arising from the repeated use of examination materials.
- Safeguarding the information of the interested parties in the process of certification of competence.
- Establish and implement a confidentiality agreement indicating a commitment not to disclose confidential test materials or engage in fraudulent practices to take exams.

President

Materials Research & Technology

January 20, 2021